Chapter 1 by PigletPinkPancake

I was pretty tied. My friends were down out of the attic(in my room) waiting for me to complete my dare. But I was not moving. I was too afraid.

"Guys do I have to do this?" I asked hoping that they would change their mind about my dare. But I got no answer. Samantha didn't make a smart remark like she usually does. Alex didn't laugh like he usually does. Quin didn't volunteer to go instead like he usually does. Instead I got the sharp pain of silence.

The dust from all the boxes blurred my vision. How long had it been since someone had been up here? Why was I doing this? Cause my so called "FRIENDS" are making me.

"Ok... ok! This isn't funny anymore! I'm coming down." I said climbing down the latter. Luckily, when I got down, all of my friends were still there. But something was different.

"Samantha, I'm surprised that you didn't make fun of my fear!" no answer.

"Guys?" no answer. They just stood there. I walked around them, thinking that this was some kind of joke. None of them moved. They just stood there. I turned in front of them and noticed their eyes. No pupils. I tried to make out what they were looking at, but it was really hard.

"My necklace." I whispered to myself.
